

ENERGY ASSISTANCE

11/17/2003

Agency	Phone	What's Available	Requirements/Populations Served
Clackamas County Weatherization Line	503-534-5470	Free weatherization opportunities for low-income families	Must live in Clackamas County. Call to receive an application for services.
Clackamas County Energy Assistance Line	503-794-8057	Energy assistance for low-income families	Must live in Clackamas County. Call to receive an application for services.
Community Action Program	503-988-6295	Free weatherization opportunities; info on energy assistance for low-income families	Must live in Multnomah County.
Energy Fair at David Douglas High School (1001 SE 135th, Portland)	503-823-7222	Applications for energy assistance. November 15th from 8:30am to 2pm.	The Fix-It Fair is always a free event. City, County and community non-profit agencies provide information, hands-on demonstrations and over a dozen how-to classes on various home and garden topics throughout the day.
Energy Fair at Kellog MS (3330 SE 69th Ave.)	503-823-7222	Applications for energy assistance. January 10th from 8:30am to 2pm.
Energy Fair at Blazers Boys & Girls Club (5250 NE MLK, Jr. Blvd.)	503-823-7222	Applications for energy assistance. January 24th from 8:30am to 2pm.
Energy Office	503-823-7222	Block-by-Block Weatherization Program: Call to see if you can get free insulation put into your home or apartment.	Must live in Portland, need insulation, and meet certain income guidelines.
Neighborhood House	503-246-1663	Emergency assistance for 5 day shut-off notices. May have additional assistance later in the year.	Must live in Multnomah County.
Portland Impact	503-988-6000	Starting mid November: LIEAP (Low Income Energy Assistance Program) and OEAP (Oregon Energy Assistance Program).	Assistance once per year. Call for area coverage.
Saint Vincent De Paul	503-235-5118	LIEAP (Low Income Energy Assistance Program)	Must live in Multnomah County. Agency located at 3601 SE 27th in Portland.
Urban League Senior Center		LIEAP program on Nov. 13th and 14th 9:00am to 12 noon then 1:00pm-3:00pm 5325 NE MLK Blvd. ( Cross street Killingsworth)
YWCA Energy Assistance Program and Water/Sewer Assistance Program	503-721-6762	Energy assistance for low-income households. Applications available after November 15th.	Call to make an appointment.

*LIEAP Program is under funded this year and may be difficult to find assistance for general public. Seniors and disabled are eligible for services now.