

Health Care Industry Forum – Participant Feedback

Community-Campus Partnerships for Health (CCPH), articulated the following “Principles of Partnership”. These principles work well as a basis to assess partnership efficacy. Please help us strengthen future activities by providing your feedback on how well the HCIF process applied each principle.

Use the scale below to respond to each:

Scale for Initial Core Evaluation Questions

Strongly Disagree	Disagree	Neither	Agree	Strongly Agree

Partners have agreed upon mission, values, goals, and measurable outcomes for the partnership.  As an example:
The relationship between partners is characterized by mutual trust, respect, genuineness, and commitment.  As an example:
The partnership builds upon identified strengths and assets, but also addresses areas that need improvement.  As an example:
There is clear, open, and accessible communication between partners, making it an on-going priority to listen to each need, develop a common language, and validate/clarify the meaning of terms.  As an example:

There is feedback to, among, and from all stakeholders in the partnership, with the goal of continuously improving the partnership and its outcomes. As an example:
Partners share the credit for the partnership's accomplishments. As an example:
The issues worked on by the forum for the past year were clearly articulated and well understood. An example would be:
As a result of my participation in the forum, I feel better connected to the issues of concern to my industry. Because:
The work of the forum focused on knowledge exchange, shared two-way learning and capacity building for my industry. An example would be:
This process demonstrated a commitment to communication and open cultivation of trust. This was demonstrated when:
Even though I personally may not have been able to attend many meetings, the information exchanged was of value.
