2. Harambee Centre

The Harambee Centre connects the people of the Pacific Northwest with the people and cultures of Africa. Harambee means 'let's pull together' in Kiswahili; our logo is the Ashanti adinkra for strength. The mission of the Harambee Centre is to pull people together for the good of the global community. We believe that multicultural education and intercultural exchange are essential to building genuine understanding, respect and enduring relationships among diverse peoples. As members of the global community, we are committed to sharing both material and cultural wealth.

PAMPANGANS, OR KAPAMPANGAN

1. Aguman Capampangan Northwest USA

This is an association of Pampangans, or Kapampangan-speaking people, whose main goals are to establish their identity, promote their culture, develop friendships among themselves, and to help their compatriots back home.

Pampangans or Pampanguenos are natives of the central plain of Luzon in the area around the former Clark Air Force Base in the Philippines. The World Almanac lists Kapampangan as having over 2 million speakers worldwide. In the Portland-Vancouver area where this "mancomunidad" is based, there are about 300 Pampangans. As of now, the association, which is renown for the medical missions it sends to the Philippines, is an incorporated non-profit socio-civic organization.
